NOCTON VINEYARD

Coal River Valley

Proudly celebrating a Chinese Tasmanian collaboration to produce world class wines from the Coal River's ancient soils.

Planted on land originally granted to Governor Davey in 1813, the Nocton story is of both Tasmania's past and its future connection with China.

In 1999, a far-sighted family saw an opportunity to bring the best of Tasmania to their home in northern China by planting a vineyard. Now with mature vines and a string of accolades, including a double gold at the 2014 China Wine & Spirit Show for the Estate Pinot Noir,

The Estate wines are designed to show the vineyard's specific flavours. With little or no oak, they let the 200 million year old soils do the talking. The NI wines represent the best of each vintage. Handpicked from areas of the vineyard that provide the greatest complexity and intensity, they are aged in Nocton's own cellars until ready to drink.
